

REINECKE DEFIDENT; DWYER CONFIDENT

Most Interesting and Exciting Match at Casino on Saturday Night.

Interest is centered on the approaching wrestling match at the Casino Saturday night.

Reinecke wired here that he is in better condition than ever before, and he feels confident that he will win the match.

"Instead of Dwyer throwing me twice in an hour," he writes, "I think I will throw him. I have just defeated the champion of New England, and the heavy weight champion of Canada, and I don't think Dwyer can do any better."

The lovers of the sport feel that Reinecke will do as he says, and that the match will be the most interesting and sensational that has yet been seen here.

Reinecke will make Richmond his home and will make all of his future dates from this city. He will in the next few weeks meet Mackay, of Washington, and Lynch, of Baltimore, two famous welter-weights, who have not been defeated.

There has already been a big demand for tickets to the match. They will be at the following places this morning, so that the rush at the Casino may be avoided. There will be no increase in the fee, despite the fact that this will be the most exciting of any yet.

Wood, Eighth and Broad Streets; the Hotel Brainerd, Wilson's, Straus', Stillman, Marshall, Stingers, Sparks and Black's, the Pock Miller-Childress Company, First and Broad.

Reinecke will reach the city to-day. He will go into training for his match at once.

Dwyer wrestles in Petersburg to-night with John Hanson, the local man.

TAKES A BRIDE.

Mr. Porr and Miss Gathright were married in Fulton.

The parishes of the Rev. David Hepburn, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, were the scene of a quiet wedding last night at 9:30 o'clock, when Miss Eleonora Gathright became the bride of Mr. Herman M. Porr. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hepburn.

Mr. Jusson Linnius was best man, and Miss Minnie Hardin was maid of honor.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Porr were driven to the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Porr, No. 38 Louisiana Street, where they will reside.

Miss Porr is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Garlington, of Graham Street, and enjoys a host of friends. Mr. Porr is a well known and popular young man of Fulton, and is a cigar-maker.

SHORT DOCKET.

Justice John Fitted a Young Man Who Was Too Hasty.

The Police Court docket was passed up in less than half an hour yesterday, and the collection made did not go over a ten dollar bill.

Two men got up a little matter of honor. They met at a certain point to arrange the details, but pending that, it was alleged that one of them struck the other two blows.

"It wasn't fair," said the man who was struck, "and that's why I had him arrested."

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or two other accidental drunks were given the same consideration.

The striker was assessed $5, and the strikee was fit with a wad of bills.

John R. Moses, colored, was arrested for being drunk. Moses came out of a hatan, and swore he had been drinking from his own acre. He was discharged, and one or